Delegations

The Chief Executive Officer and other officers have delegated authority from Council to make decisions on a number of specified administrative and policy matters. These delegations are listed in the Delegation Register and are reviewed annually by Council.

The Local Government Act 1995 and associated Regulations requires Council to:

- determine policies to be applied by Council in exercising its discretionary powers;
- determine the type, range and scope of projects to be undertaken by Council; and
- develop comprehensive management plans, budgets, financial controls and performance objectives and indicators for the operations of Council.

5.0 Public Participation

Members of the public have a number of opportunities to put forward their views on particular issues before the Council.

These are:

Deputations

Requests for deputations must be made to the Chairperson / Presiding Member of the meeting or Chief Executive Officer at least 30 minutes prior to the meeting.

Public Question Time

Members of the public are able to ask questions (preferably in writing) on any matter affecting the Shire in the time set aside for this purpose at meetings of the Council and Committees open to the public, at the commencement of the meeting.

Petitions

Written petitions to be presented to the Council must be addressed to the Shire President or Chief Executive Officer and received by hand at the Shire of Kojonup administration office or mail via the Shire of Kojonup nominated postal address.

Written Requests

A member of the public can write to the Council on any policy, activity or service of the Council. Requests should be addressed to the Chief Executive Officer or may be on the nominated service request or complaint forms.

Elected Members

Members of the public can contact the elected members of the Council to discuss any issue relevant to the Council.

Community Consultation

The Shire consults with its residents on particular issues that affect their district by way of advertising in the local papers, calling public meetings, and seeking responses to various proposals. In addition, the Shire uses Facebook and its websites to provide information and seek feedback on a variety of topics.

In situations where property owners may be directly affected by a decision they are contacted directly.

6.1 Documents Held by the Shire

The Shire of Kojonup holds a large number and variety of documents. The majority of these are held in hard copy. Documents are retained for periods of time in accordance with the General Disposal Authority for Local Government Records.

The Shire maintains a Municipal Heritage Inventory of all buildings within the Shire boundary that are, or may become, of cultural heritage significance to the community. The Municipal Heritage Inventory was last updated in 2017 and is currently undergoing a review.

Retention and Disposal of Council Records

Retention and Disposal of the Shire of Kojonup records is in accordance with the State Records Act 2000 and Shire of Kojonup Recordkeeping Plan.

Available via Freedom of Information Act

While the Council endeavours to respond to information requests informally, Freedom of Information Legislation may be used to request access to information not available by any other means.

The Council is to administer the Act in a way that:

- Assists the public to obtain access to documents;
- Allows access to documents to be obtained promptly and at the lowest reasonable costs; and
- Assists the public to ensure that personal information contained in documents is accurate, complete, up-to-date and is not misleading.

While the Act provides for general right of access to documents it also recognises that some documents require protection – these exemptions are listed in Schedule 1 of the Act and include:

- Personal information;
- Information concerning trade secrets;
- Other commercially valuable information; or
- Any other information concerning the business, professional, commercial or financial affairs of a third party who is not the applicant.

7.1 Freedom of Information Procedures, Contacts and Access Arrangements

It is the aim of the Shire to make information available promptly and at the least possible cost. Wherever possible, documents and information will be provided outside the FOI process.

If information is not routinely available, the Freedom of Information Act 1992 provides the right to apply for documents held by the Shire and to enable the public to ensure that personal information in documents is accurate, complete, up-to-date, and not misleading.

Freedom of Information Applications

Access applications have to be:

- In writing;
- Give sufficient information so that the documents requested can be identified;
- Give an Australian address to which notices can be sent; and
- Be lodged at the Shire with the appropriate application fee payable.

Applications and enquiries should be addressed to:

FOI Co-ordinator
Shire of Kojonup
PO Box 163
KOJONUP WA 6395

Or

Telephone (08) 9831 2400
Facsimile (08) 9831 1566

Applications will be acknowledged in writing and applicants are notified of the decision within forty-five (45) days.

No specific application form is required and any written request that contains the information required, detailed above, will be considered.

Freedom of Information Fees and Charges

A scale of fees and charges is set under the regulations of the Freedom of Information Act. Apart from the application fee for non-personal information, all charges are discretionary. A 25% concession may be applied where applicants can demonstrate that they are financially disadvantaged.

GST is not applied under Division 81 of the Goods and Services Tax Act 1999.

The fees and charges are as follows: -

1. Type of Fee

Application fee under section 12(1)(e) of the Act (for an application for non-personal information)	$30.00

| e) Charge for duplicating a tape, film or computer information | Actual Cost |
| f) Charge for delivery, packaging and postage | Actual Cost |

Advance Deposits

An advance deposit of 25% of the estimated charges may be requested in the discretion of the FOI Co-ordinator.

Further interim payments may be required to meet the charges for dealing with the application.

Access Arrangements

Access to documents can be granted by way of inspection, a copy of a document, a copy of a video or audio tape, or computer disk, or a transcript of a recorded, shorthand or encoded document from which words can be reproduced.

Notice of Decision

As soon as possible but in any case within forty-five days, applicants are provided with a notice of decision, which will include details such as: -

- The date the decision was made;
- The name and the designation of the officer who made the decision;
- If the document is an exempt document, the reasons for classifying the matter exempt, or the fact that access is given to an edited document; and
- Information on the right to review and the procedures to be followed to exercise those rights.

Refusal of Access

Applicants who are dissatisfied with a decision of the Shire are entitled to ask for an internal review by the Shire. Application should be made in writing within thirty days of receiving the notice of decision.

Applicants are to be notified of the outcome of the review within fifteen days.

If applicants disagree with the result, they can then apply to the Information Commissioner for an external review. Details are advised to appellants when the internal review decision is issued.

Freedom of Information Procedures for the Amendment of Personal Information

The only records of a personal nature held by the Shire of Kojonup are staff employee records and financial interest disclosures by elected members.

Any person concerned that any records maintained by the Shire may contain personal information about himself or herself that may require amendment can write or contact: -
