A message from our CEO Rick Mitchell-Collins

"During the stakeholder engagement phase of developing the Community Strategic Plan 'SMART Possibilities 2017 - 2027+," our community members raised issues regarding a considered and agreed Customer Service Charter within Key Pillar 3 – Performance.

This charter has been developed to provide our customers with clear expectations of our service commitments and desire to be a dynamic, responsible and effective customer-focussed organisation.

The charter reinforces our Strategic Community Plan's aspiration for smart contemporary governance and transparent leadership that is accountable and involves our community.

Your satisfaction with what we do is very important and this charter outlines the ways you can voice feedback, which in turn helps our continuous improvement.

I would like to thank our community for your input and support as we continue to action this charter."
