New Reads

Glory girl / Peter Yeldham: AUSTRALIAN. London, 1927. Aviators seek to conquer new frontiers in the sky. Former wartime ace James Harrington has his sights set on being the first person to fly from Britain to Australia in a light aircraft. With so much desert and ocean to cross, he's been told it can't be done. Feisty Australian Sarah Carson can help make his dream a reality, but only on the condition that he takes her with him. So begins the flying adventure of a lifetime, until halfway across the world, the plane disappears. Reporting on it all back home is Sarah's boyfriend, Fleet Street aviation correspondent Daniel Anderson, whose job it is to uncover the truth. Where in the world are they? And what is really going on? From Australia's master of the historical blockbuster comes this highly entertaining adventure-romance about an ambitious and heroic pair. Glory Girl is an unforgettable story about the risks they take and the sacrifices they make for their chance of glory.

Flight Risk / Sandra Brown: Includes the stories 'Tomorrow's Promise' and 'Two Alone'

The Trader's Dream / Anna Jacobs: Domestic fiction. The Trader's Dream is the third novel in Anna Jacobs' wonderfully atmospheric new saga series 'The Traders', set in Europe, the Orient and Australia's Swan River Colony. Bram Deagan dreams of bringing his family from Ireland to join him in Australia, where he now runs a successful trading business. But when a typhus epidemic strikes Ireland, it leaves the Deagan family decimated. And, with other family members scattered round the world, it is left to Maura Deagan to look after her orphaned nieces and nephew. Forced to abandon her own ambitions, and unsure whether she is ready to become a mother-figure to three young children, Maura recognises that their only hope is to join Bram in far away Australia. So they set sail on the SS Delta, which will carry them there, via the newly opened Suez Canal. It is only when a storm throws her and fellow passenger Hugh Beaufort together that Maura realises this journey may also give her a chance to pursue a dream she set aside long ago--to have a family of her own. That is, until someone from Hugh's past threatens to jeopardise everything.

SPRINGHAVEN NEWS

The Residents all enjoyed their Christmas whether it was with family or here at Springhaven. We have been out for morning tea at Country Kitchen, had Lyn Mathews play the piano for us and have had an Italian Day theme with all Italian goodies to eat. We are looking forward to having the students from St Bernards visit us on a regular basis and hopefully once the weather becomes nicer we will go on a few outings. Once again we thank the wonderful Craft ladies who come every Monday, it is so nice to see all the ladies sitting around chatting and being very busy.
